Introduction

Airmyn Parish Council & Airmyn Community Association need to gather and use certain information about individuals. These can include our users, volunteers and other people the organisation has a relationship with or may need to contact. This policy describes how this personal data must be collected, handled and stored to meet the organisation's data protection standards and to comply with the law.

Data protection law

The Data Protection Act is underpinned by eight important principles. These say that personal data must:

1. Be processed fairly and lawfully
2. Be obtained only for specific, lawful purposes
3. Be adequate, relevant and not excessive
4. Be accurate and kept up to date
5. Not be held for any longer than necessary
6. Be processed in accordance with the rights of data subjects
7. Be protected in appropriate ways
8. Be kept within the EEA (European Economic Area)

Policy scope

This policy applies to:

- All users and volunteers, contractors, suppliers and other people working on behalf of Airmyn Parish Council & Airmyn Community Association.

It applies to all data that Airmyn Parish Council & Airmyn Community Association hold relating to identifiable individuals, even if that information technically falls outside of the Data Protection Act 1998. This can include:

- Names of individuals
- Postal addresses
- Email addresses
- Telephone numbers
- Any other information relating to individuals

Data protection risks

This policy helps to protect Airmyn Parish Council & Airmyn Community Association from some very real data security risks, including breaches of confidentiality, for instance, information being given out inappropriately.

Responsibilities

However, these people have key areas of responsibility:

- The Parish Council is ultimately responsible for ensuring it meets its legal obligations.
- The assigned parish council member responsible for data protection, is responsible for:
 - Keeping the committee updated about data protection responsibilities, risks and issues.
 - Reviewing procedures and policies and respond to enquiries.
- The only people able to access data covered by this policy should be those who need it for their work.
- Volunteers should keep all data secure, by taking sensible precautions and following the guidelines below.
- In particular, strong passwords must be used and they should never be shared.
- Personal data should not be disclosed to unauthorised people
- Data should be regularly reviewed and updated if it is found to be out of date. If no longer required, it should be deleted and disposed of.

Storage

When data is stored on paper, it should be kept in a secure place where unauthorised people cannot see it.

- When not required, the paper or files should be kept in a locked drawer or filing cabinet.
- Archive documents should be shredded and disposed of securely when no longer required.
- Electronic and paper Data will be held in as few places as necessary.
- Data should be updated as inaccuracies are discovered. For instance, if someone can no longer be reached on their stored telephone number, it should be removed from the database.

Subject Access

All individuals who are the subject of personal data held by Airmyn Parish Council & Airmyn Community Association are entitled to:

- Ask what information Airmyn Parish Council & Airmyn Community Association hold about them and why.
- Ask how to gain access to it.
- Be informed how to keep it up to date.
- Be informed how Airmyn Parish Council & Airmyn Community Association are meeting their data protection obligations.

Subject access requests from individuals should be referred to the assigned parish council & community association member responsible for data protection, who will aim to provide a response within 14 days.

The assigned parish council member responsible for data protection will satisfy themselves that the person making the request is in indeed the subject of the request before handing over any information. In certain circumstances, the Data Protection Act allows personal data to be disclosed to law enforcement agencies without the consent of the data subject. Airmyn Parish Council & Airmyn Community Association will, in these cases, comply with police requests.

This Policy was adopted at a Committee meeting of Airmyn Parish Council & Airmyn Community Association on 18 November 2020 and will be reviewed annually.
