DEFIBRILLATOR TRAINING

Thirty residents attended the very entertaining and informative Defibrillator Training on Monday, 18 September 2017. The event took place in the hall of Airmyn Park Primary School. Warren Bostock, Community Defibrillation Officer of the Yorkshire Ambulance Service NHS, delivered the training, taking his audience through the actions to be taken when someone collapses due to heart failure: how to assess the condition of the patient and detect that the heart has stopped, actions to be taken and CPR. He brought a defibrillator pack to show its contents and its operation.

The training was organised by Airmyn Parish Emergency Team and Liz Sargeantson, Senior Caseworker for Andrew Percy MP, and was generously funded by Andrew Percy and Airmyn Parish Council. The Emergency Team would like to thank both Andrew and the council, as well as the Head of Airmyn Park Primary for allowing us to use the school hall.

THE PERCY ARMS, AIRMYN: A BRIEF HISTORY

The Airmyn pub has not always been called the "Percy Arms". In an 1821 Directory, it is listed as the "Bay Horse" but the name was changed to "The Beverley Arms" in 1867. It is assumed that this was a mark of respect for the Earl of Beverley, who owned the Airmyn Estate from 1830 until 1865. On the death of the Earl, his nephew, Mr. Heber-Percy, became the estate's owner and is probably why the pub became the "Percy Arms" in 1872. The earliest written reference to the public house is from 1784, when the landlord was brewing his own beer.

Jesse Miller was the landlord of the "Percy Arms" from about 1880 until 1911 and was succeeded by the Precious family, who remained in charge for the next forty years. Jesse Miller planted the oldest of the trees on the river bank along High Street, only a very few of which are left, on December 11, 1866, a fact which the Vicar of Airmyn at that time, the Rev. Richard Pears Hardman, recorded in his marriage register.

There are three interesting collections of wartime photographs in the pub entitled, "Airmyn on Active Service", showing individual villagers from the forties in their various regimental uniforms. Miss Nancy Precious placed them on the wall of the pub; she corresponded with every one of them while they were serving in the forces, keeping them informed about how things were at home and sending them small gifts.

In 1911, a customer could buy a packet of Woodbines, a glass of beer and a box of matches for 3d (approximately 1p in decimal coinage). Ten pints of beer cost 2s 6d (12p), and a bottle of whisky was 3s (15p).

After the Precious family, Douglas Marlow took over the running of the Percy Arms. He was followed as landlord by Percy Skett and his wife Edna in October, 1960. They retired in December, 1971 and were succeeded by Terry Rowlands who was there until 1977. He was succeeded by Ian Wilson who died tragically in a car accident just a couple of days before Christmas, 1980, along the Rawcliffe Road near White City and was succeeded by Brian Percy in August, 1981. Brian Percy had no connection with the Percy Family who owned the estate, it is purely a coincidence that he had the same surname.

Historical facts taken from, "Airmyn in Days Gone By", Volumes 1,2,3 by David Galloway.

Church Christmas Draw:

This fund-raising exercise will be taking place as usual with books of tickets being on sale from the beginning of December at a cost of £2 per book. Offers of prizes for this Draw would be welcomed by any member of the Parochial Church Council (the PCC). The winning numbers will be drawn at a social gathering in church at 2-00 pm on Saturday, the 16th December, and any people from the village + their friends will be welcome to attend and witness the Draw and share refreshments, some carol-singing and a quiz.

Carol-Singing:

As we have done from time immemorial (or at least the late fifties), members of the church choir + enthusiastic volunteers, including supervised children, will be visiting all areas of the village singing carols over the course of four separate evenings with the aim of providing good-quality 'street theatre' and at the same time raising money to help sustain the village church. The dates for this activity are not yet set in stone but they are likely to be Monday, the 18th, Tuesday the 19th, Thursday the 21st and Friday, the 22nd December.

On each occasion the singers will start from the church lychgate at 6-30 pm and will sing for about 2 hours. Volunteers will be made very welcome and song-sheets will be provided. We will also be singing in the Old Vicarage Residential Home on Saturday, the 23rd December, for a short while, commencing at 2-00 pm. Please contact either of our churchwardens, Janet Rushby and David Galloway, if you require any further information about any of the above items.
